Here's the house on the Penzato farm, near New Paltz, where three men were arrested, charged with operating an unlicensed still. The attached garage furnished a loading place for cars and trucks, officers said. One New Paltz man was involved, Frank Penzato, 25, son of the former owner of the farm who died several months ago. Dutchess Officers Probe Death of Man on Highway

Dutchess county sheriff's office men are investigating the death of Douglas Baker, 20, Quaker Lane, whose body was discovered on a highway near Poughkeepsie at 3:26 a. m. today.

Sheriff Fred Close said a Mr. Sessinger, who was otherwise unidentified, discovered Baker's lifeless body on the Salt Point Turnpike about two and a half miles west of Poughkeepsie. The youth had apparently been hit and run over by a vehicle, the sheriff said. Brought in for questioning was Steven Madaras, 30, of 7 Fallkill avenue, Poughkeepsie. Sheriff Close claimed that Madaras reported he had come along the highway and had seen the body lying in the road too late to avoid running over it. Sheriff Close added that Madaras made his report about two hours after the incident. Questioning was continuing at the sheriff's office today.

Sheriff Close and Deputies Adams and Quinn are conducting the investigation.

Will Postpone Action

The Hague, The Netherlands, July 28 (AP)—An informed parliamentary source said today Dutch ratification of the North Atlantic Treaty will be postponed for about two weeks. Some documents the Upper House requested could not be printed in time for the debate, which had been scheduled to open today. The pact has already been approved by the Dutch Lower House. Final approval by both the Dutch and French Upper Houses of Parliament is necessary before the treaty becomes legally effective.

Father Is Accused

Bessemer, Ala., July 28 (AP)—A young father has been accused of selling his two and a half year old daughter for $500. Police said they are checking reports that he offered his other daughter, age eight months, for adoption for $500. The father, Layman Alvin Edwards, 26-year-old unemployed miner, told reporters he agreed to adoption of his daughter Jewel because "I couldn't give her the things she needs." Edwards' 24-year-old wife said $140 of the money went to buy a 1936 automobile.

Show Threatened

Paris Seamstresses Walk Out, Some Houses May Cancel

Paris, July 28 (AP)—The world famous fall fashion showings by the dressmakers of Paris were threatened today by a walkout of 14,000 seamstresses.

The shows are scheduled to begin next week. The effect a complete work stoppage might have was uncertain.

While many designers said their autumn models are ready and that they could go ahead with their showings, it was understood some dressmakers might have to cancel their shows. There normally is feverish last-minute activity in the shops, with final alterations and fittings.

The seamstresses asked wage raises to bring level up to 40 cents an hour for skilled tailors. The proposed salary scale ranged down to nine cents an hour for first year apprentices. The employers say this would be a 30 per cent increase.

Three Men Seized In New Paltz Raid On Big, Illicit Still

Operations Had Ceased at Penzato Farm Before Arrival of Authorities

New York, July 28 (AP)—President Philip Murray of the C.I.O. steelworkers announced today his union wants a packaged increase of 30 cents per hour in their current dispute with the steel companies, including a fourth round wage increase of 12 1/4 cents.

Murray revealed the demands for the first time at the opening session of the fact finding board appointed by President Truman to avert a strike in the dispute.

Murray was the first speaker for the union before the board.

The demands also include 11.23 cents per hour for pensions and 6.27 cents per hour for social insurance.

"The union is not afraid to have its side of the dispute examined in the public interest," the gray-haired union head told the board.

"The industry on the other hand, has been desperately anxious to conceal the economic fuels from impartial scrutiny."

The industry is amassing profits at the staggering rate approaching one billion dollars annually, after all taxes. "This is a record high never approached before, even in the boom year of 1929."

The union says that the current average basic wage rate of steel workers is $1.65 per hour. In the previous three rounds of postwar wage increases, the union got 18 1/2 in 1945, 15 cents in 1947, and 13 cents in 1948. The figures for the last two years include some fringe benefits.

As the hearing opened the fact finding board ruled that it would consider evidence on pensions for steel workers along with the two other issues at stake.

Dwelling Needed, 17 Living in One House Since Fire

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fischer and family of seven children have been without a home of their own for almost two months. They lived at 40 Ann street until June 7 when their home was destroyed by fire.

Since that time pleas have been made almost continuously for an apartment or home for the family but none has been offered. If anyone has a place to offer the Fischer family, they may contact them at Kingston Telephone 5081-J.

The family is living with Mrs. Fischer's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brauer of 61 Ann street who have five children. In all there are 17 people living in one home. In reporting the condition to the Freeman this morning, Mrs. Brauer said that six are obliged to sleep in one room.

As soon as the Fischer family is able to establish their home again, a sum of money provided by public contribution will buy some household furnishings according to Mrs. Henry Singer, chairman of the fire contribution committee.

At the time of the fire which swept through several buildings and families, the Fischer family was divided between the Stoughton and Fischer families. The committee decided to provide household furnishings. The sum for the Stoughton family has been used to provide these items. Mrs. Singer reports.

Cable Is Burned

Firemen were called shortly after 3 p. m. Wednesday to the Beatty Farm, Hunley avenue extension where a short in an electric cable had caused smoke in a barn. Fire Chief Murphy said today it had not been determined whether the short was caused by lightning during the storm of yesterday afternoon. A workman from the upper part of the barn saw smoke coming through the flooring and pulled the switch, the chief said. Damage did not extend beyond the cable.

Disputes Are Ahead For Senate

Seven - Billion Money Bill Is Taken Up; George Says Funds Needed
V.A. Is Big Item
O'Mahoney Offers Two Amendments to Measure

Washington, July 28 (AP)—The Senate ploughed today into the $7,636,000,000 independent offices money bill—and the prospects of several disputes.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), chairman of the Appropriations Committee's independent offices subcommittee, sought to anticipate the critics and presented the argument that more than 65 per cent of the money is for war-connected expenditures.

This includes, he said, more than $5,000,000,000 for the Veterans Administration and lesser amounts for the Battle Monument Commission, Maritime Commission and the Atomic Energy Commission.

Thirty-three agencies are lumped into the bill. They are called independent offices to distinguish them from cabinet departments.

The Senate yesterday left unchanged the $1,000,000,000 awarded the Atomic Commission, the same amount approved by the House. This represents a cut of $75,879,603 from the budget estimate.

However, the Senate did approve an amendment permitting the A.E.C. to spend what it had left from the year ended June 30, reported to amount to $40,000,000 or $45,000,000.

Two amendments offered by O'Mahoney may produce fireworks. One would, in effect, put a check on A.E.C. spending. The other would require a full F.B.I. check of all A.E.C. scientific research fellowship candidates.

The Senate yesterday refused, on two roll call votes, to reduce increases recommended by the Appropriations Committee for the Budget Bureau and for President Truman's Council of Economic Advisers.

The Budget Bureau was awarded $3,314,500, an increase of $11,450 over the House figure, and the Economic Council $340,000, or $400,000 more than the House approved.

O'Mahoney, noting that there were three roll call votes, said he would make no prediction as to when the Senate would complete the bulky bill.

The $7,636,000,000 bill is $415,335,957 under the budget estimate and $1,555,885,000 under last year's appropriation. It is approximately $522,000,000 above the figure voted by the House.

Mohonk Guests Told to Carry Protective Clubs

Notices warning vacationists who walk the picturesque paths and roads of the Lake Mohonk area to carry heavy sticks for protection against rabid foxes were posted yesterday at the Shawangunk mountain resort. It was learned today.

The warning followed the killing of a rabid fox in a barn of the Lake Mohonk Mountain House property a week ago, a spokesman for the management said today. It was reported also that a fox which had been shot on the property last spring was found to be rabid.

Health authorities reported earlier in the summer that other rabid animals had been found in the county, and a recent test revealed that a raccoon killed at High Falls was infected with the disease.

Polio Cases Run Ahead of '44; Are Gaining Strength

Survey Shows 6,935 III With Disease; Is Evenly Distributed in Nation

(By The Associated Press)

Infantile paralysis cases in 1949 are running far ahead of 1944—the second worst polio year in U. S. history.

An Associated Press survey today showed 6,935 cases over the nation through July 27, with 337 polio deaths.

In 1944 the total for the same date was 4,176. Totals for 1944 eventually reached 19,029, topped only by 27,363 in 1916.

The U. S. Public Health Service in Washington reported the 6,935 cases as of July 23 this year was 38.4 per cent higher than the 4,980 reported through the same date in 1948—and 1948 was a near-record year.

The polio appeared to be gaining strength with the hot weather. Government figures showed 1,444 new cases during the week ending July 23. This was an increase of 47.5 per cent over the same week of 1948, which had 979. In 1944, there were 915 new cases for the week ending July 27.

For the most part the polio upsurge appeared to be fairly evenly distributed over the nation. Only a few epidemic areas were reported.

At least 33 states reported a step-up in the polio rate, while eight showed a decline.

Nearly two-thirds of the nation's polio was centered in nine states. The leaders were Texas, 1,233; California, 708; Arkansas, 483; Oklahoma, 440; New York, 353; Missouri, 302; Minnesota, 281.

Brooklyn Boy Is Hit by Lightning; Killed Instantly

Hot Weather Lingers Since Early in June

This is no day to discuss the weather, but hoping you're next to a fan and a juke, here it is: This month has had only eight days to date with air fit to breathe, according to records at the city engineer's office.

And furthermore, we've had only two days that we might cautiously call "cool," since June 10, says the records.

A hasty summation of the heat wave today revealed that 20 out of the 28 days to date this month brought temperatures of 90 degrees and above, with a high of 102 on July 4.

It turns out also that the low overnight temperatures haven't been doing so well in providing relief and this fine day started off with a maximum low of 75 degrees which is a record high in the middle of a hot wave.

But cheer up. In 1936 the mercury hit 106 three times within one week and the average temperature for that mid-summer week was 101.

Again the maximum "low" of 75 degrees which we experienced last night, or early this morning, has happened only seven times in 13 years and during that time we have had Julys with temperatures of 90 and above for only 12 to 18 days.

This year, it seems, it all began after June 1 when we had a low of 43 and a high of 82 degrees. Then the tide fell and we started to boil over.

Don't look now, but at 11 a. m. today it was 93 and climbing.

Result: Austria declared war on Serbia, Germany invaded France, Russia invaded Germany. Then British expeditionary force landed in France.

Rosenbloom Indicted

New York, July 28 (AP)—A federal grand jury indicted Abraham Rosenbloom, 43, today on charges of evading $208,192.01 in income tax payments. Assistant U. S. Attorney Edward E. Rigney said Rosenbloom, a tobacco wholesaler, failed to report $261,578 of his $294,806 net income in 1943 and 1944. Rosenbloom's address was given as 25 North Clover Drive, Great Neck, L. I.

Contractor Has Until End of Year

Razing Operations Are to Start Inside, Will Not Use Demolition Ball
Bixby to Direct

Tallamy Says Engineer From District Office to Be in Charge

Work on the demolition of 16 buildings in the Broadway crossing project area is expected to begin next Monday or at the start of the following week, Frank Hoffman of Pleasant Valley, the contractor said today.

Hoffman indicated that the State Public Works Department is anxious to get the work started and he will begin next Monday if possible.

The deadline for completion of the work is December 31, Hoffman said, and he expects to finish the job in from three to four months.

The contract was awarded last month to Hoffman at a bid of $19,200, which was considerably lower than the state's estimate of $28,000.

The contractor said he will begin work on the inside of the buildings and the progress of the demolition will not be noticeable for another two or three weeks after work is started on the first building.

Hoffman said he will not use a demolition ball of the type commonly used in the razing of structures in recent years, but will do all the work "by hand."

Bertram D. Tallamy, New York state superintendent of public works, announced officially today that details of the contract have been worked out and that the work will be under direction of James S. Bixby, engineer of the department's district office at Poughkeepsie.

To Demolish 29
Tallamy's announcement said that 29 buildings, "most of which are of frame construction," will be demolished and removed from an area extending from approximately 300 feet north of Broadway to 500 feet south of it and along Broadway from Cornell street to Derderick street.

Except for the 16 buildings which front on Broadway, the superintendent said, the remaining structures will be removed to permit future construction of five connecting streets in the area north and south of Broadway and for a connecting street between Greenkill and Railroad avenues. This is to pass over reconstructed Broadway on a bridge to be built parallel to and about 75 feet west of the proposed railroad structure.

Tallamy's announcement also stated that "Private property required for right of way needed for this project, is acquired by the state."

Buick Leases Chevrolet Rooms

Sales Building Is Taken by Kingston Company, Gross Says

The former Chevrolet salesrooms on Maiden Lane at Broadway has been leased to the Kingston Buick Company by Mrs. R. M. Sutcliffe and will be used by the Buick company as salesrooms for new and used cars. The Main street garage will be continued.

While the lease, which was negotiated through the real estate firm of Lane and Flanagan, becomes effective as of August first, the Kingston Buick has already taken possession and is getting the property in shape for immediate use.

Conrad J. Gross, president and treasurer of the Kingston Buick Company, Inc., stated today that the Maiden Lane property, which consists of a large show room and adjoining sales room with office, had been leased in order to increase the service to Buick owners and to give better service to purchasers of new cars. This exchange of sales facilities will permit receipt of new cars at the Fourth of July accident toll.

Safety Council Has Plans For Reducing Car Fatalities

Mounting automobile fatalities in recent weeks formed the basis for long discussion at the July meeting of the Ulster County Safety Council and plans were advanced for a "conscious care" program run in cooperation with various organizations of the city and county.

The August meeting is scheduled for Monday, the 29th, at the Red Cross office on Clinton avenue.

"Traffic violations are becoming more and more flagrant," said Chairman Richard M. Kalish. He added, "Public responsibility does not seem to be enough to protect the law abiding and the Ulster Safety Council is resolved to press for greater protection through the vigilance of the law and through organized public safety agencies."

The council plans a campaign to make the public conscious of increasing deaths on the highway through the medium of messages.

Bill Introduced To Give Money on Basis of Needs

Washington, July 28 (AP)—Congress showed no disposition today to stick its chin out on the hot issue of federal aid to education despite a Republican-sponsored "out."

Three Republican House members teamed up—although without official G.O.P. blessing—on a new approach which would shift the school aid issue out of the realm of religious controversy.

They introduced a bill yesterday to provide federal money solely according to state need, and spelling out the right of the states to use it—or not—on parochial and other "nonpublic" schools as they saw fit.

In general, the bill sets up the national education average as the goal for the states to shoot at, and authorizes help only for those states falling below.

But with time running short, there appeared little or no likelihood that Congress would act before adjournment.

"I don't suppose there's any chance of passage at this session," conceded Rep. Werdell (R-Calif.), one of the trio of sponsors.

This pretty much reflected the views expressed by his co-authors, Reps. Keating (R-Pa.) and Morton (R-Ky.).

"Unfortunately," Werdell commented, "the whole problem has taken such a turn in this session that most members are fearful of even discussing it now."

School aid was made the central issue of a religious dispute when Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York attacked the bill by Rep. Barden (D-N.C.) as "un-American" and "anti-Catholic," and later accused Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt of bias against the Roman Catholic Church when she took up the school aid dispute and backed the idea of spending public money on public schools alone.

In a letter to the cardinal yesterday, Mrs. Roosevelt denied religious bias.

The religious aspects of the dispute stemmed from prohibitions in the Barden bill which would have the effect of limiting federal funds to public tax-supported schools and deny school transportation and auxiliary health services to parochial or private schools.

The Keating-Morton-Werdell bill was drafted along the lines recently proposed by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, and supported by former President Herbert Hoover and Harold E. Stassen.

president of the University of Pennsylvania.

It expressly prohibits any element of federal control over state education.

Under present conditions, the sponsor's figure aid would be limited to only thirteen states whose educational standards are listed below the national average.

Debate Continues

New York, July 28 (AP)—Debate over whether private and church schools should get federal funds still swirled today in the wake of opposing statements by Francis Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Two more officials sided with Mrs. Roosevelt in opposing federal aid to non-public schools. They were Dr. John K. Norton, of Columbia University professor and official of the National Education Association, and Dr. John W. Behnken, president of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Support for Cardinal Spellman came from James A. Fahey, prominent Catholic layman and former postmaster general under the late President Roosevelt, as he left yesterday for Europe.

Fahey took no specific stand on the federal aid issue, except to say he hoped Congress would "clear up any differences." But he praised Cardinal Spellman as "a great prince of the church," and added:

"I am sure he (Cardinal Spellman) gave considerable thought and great consideration to the contents of his letter to Mrs. Roosevelt before he wrote it."

In his letter last week, the New York Archbishop accused Mrs. Roosevelt of taking an "anti-Catholic" stand "unworthy of an American mother" in opposing federal aid to church schools.

Mrs. Roosevelt, replying yesterday, said she had no bias against any religion. She voiced anew her opposition to federal support of schools set up by various religious sects, and said she would continue to speak out for what she believes right.

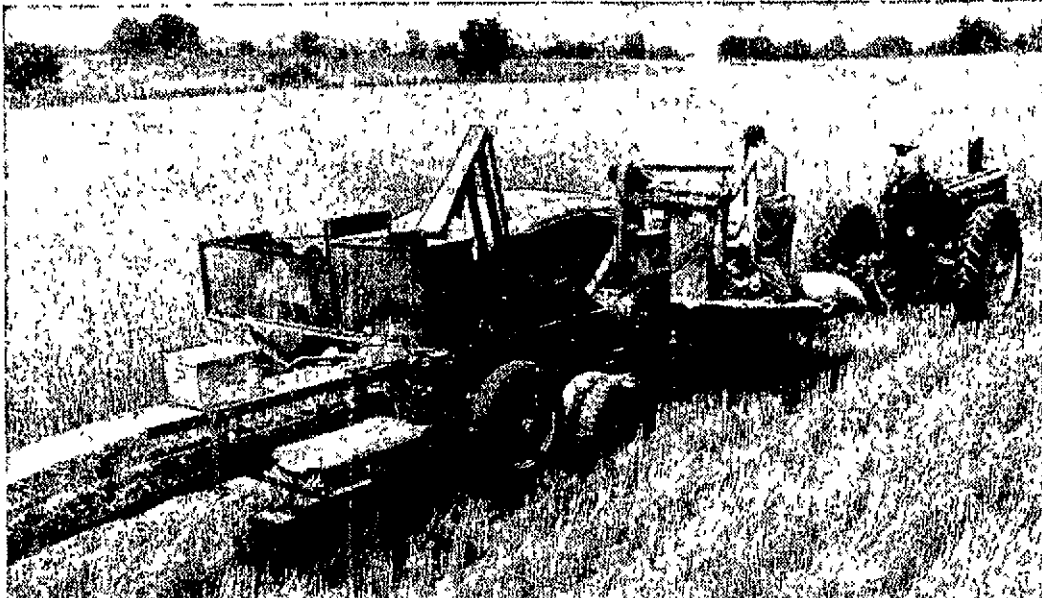

Dr. Norton, chairman of the N.E.A.'s Educational Policy Commission, said in a speech at a Columbia education conference yesterday that granting public funds to denominational schools would be "the most abject retreat in all our history."

Would Abolish

He said some persons are demanding that the "price of federal aid to education" be the abolition of the American principle of separation of church and state and of the First Amendment of the Constitution.

(The first amendment says "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or restricting the free exercise thereof.")

"They have insisted that the Woman Asks Time To Prepare Her Defense in Suits

New Haven, July 28 (AP)—Miss Hester R. McCullough of Greenwich, asked in Federal Court here yesterday for more time to prepare her defense in $100,000 libel suits filed by Paul Draper, the dancer, and Emily Adler, the harmonica virtuosa.

At the same time, her lawyers asked Federal Judge Carroll C. Hincks to set aside entries of default obtained on July 15 by Draper and Adler. An entry of default was described as a preliminary step in applying for payment of the claimed damage. They were made because the defendant had not answered the complaints within the period required by Federal procedure.

Judge Hincks said he would hear both pleas at 11 a. m. Tuesday.

Counsel for Mrs. McCullough, wife of John T. McCullough, a contributing editor for Time Magazine, said today it had been impossible to complete an answer to the complaints within the time specified.

Draper and Adler, in their suits, charge Mrs. McCullough libeled them in statements attacking their political activities allegedly made in connection with her return of tickets for one of the concerts of the Greenwich Community Concert Association scheduled for last January 21.

The pair engaged to appear at this concert, said she returned her tickets to the concert and then "did wrongfully and maliciously write and publish, or caused to be published, on or about December 21, 1948, in a newspaper known as Greenwich Time and the Greenwich Press, a certain defamatory libel."

In Nashville, Tenn., John O. Gross, executive secretary of the Division of Educational Institutions of the Methodist Board of Education, said today in a letter to Rep. Barden (D-N.C.) that the Methodist support without reservation this nation's historic position of separation of church and state.

"Methodists do not expect and are not asking for federal aid for their schools. When the time comes that they cannot maintain their educational work without the direct support of the state they will readily relinquish all their educational responsibilities to the state."

In Massachusetts, 15 Protestant clergymen and laymen called for repeal of a state law permitting the state to pay for transporting parochial school pupils.

Frank J. Batchelder, a spokesman for the group, said the Roosevelt-Spellman controversy is serving to awaken the public to the issue of church-state separation as it involves education.

Masson Sears, chairman of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee, called the open move "a shameful, un-American undertaking."

Torrent of Sewer Water Sweeps Woman to Death

Hiasbrouck Heights, N. J., July 28 (AP)—A violent and freakish thunderstorm yesterday swept a woman down a gutter and into a sewage culvert to her death.

Witnesses said the unusual drowning occurred when Mrs. Edna Michel, 54, tried to cross a deep torrent of water in a Washington place gutter.

The speed and depth of water were enough to knock her down and carry her for two blocks downhill into a drainage culvert.

Horror-stricken spectators told police the woman struggled against a swirling current four feet deep.

Persons who rushed to the scene were unable to catch her or to release her body until it had been wedged in the culvert for a quarter of an hour, police said.

By that time she had drowned in the pouring rainwater.

Earnings Show Gain

Washington, July 28 (AP)—Factory workers' average weekly earnings rose from $52.66 in May to $53.68 in June. Reporting this today, the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said it was due to increased production activity in auto plants and in a number of nondurable goods industries. The end of the Ford strike helped raise the earnings figure. Another factor was the lengthening of the average factory worker's work week during the month from May to June from 38.5 to 38.9 hours. This is an hour below a year ago.

NEW FLYING BOAT FOR NAVY—This is the Navy's speedy XPS-1 patrol plane, now nearing completion at the San Diego, Calif., plant of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. Test flights are scheduled for this fall. The 60-ton craft, powered by four Allison propeller-turbine engines, is designed for long-range day and night sea search, rescue operations and anti-submarine patrol.

INTO THE WILD BLUE—Still strapped in his seat, Capt. Vincent Mazzeo is shot from an Air Force plane going 555 miles per hour during successful test of emergency pilot-ejection chair over San Pablo Bay, near San Francisco. He parachuted safely. Another pilot in the two-place plane brought it back to its base.

Groundwork Laid For Challenges of Major Legislation

Washington, July 28 (AP)—House Republicans are laying the groundwork to challenge in the courts any major legislation enacted by Congress against their wishes after July 31.

With present plans calling for adjournment around the end of August, a considerable volume of major legislation may be enacted after the end of this month. Set for votes next month are minimum wage, health aid to school children, foreign military assistance, and Social Security extension bills, in addition to some big appropriation measures.

G.O.P. leaders have reported privately that some of their members will object to action on any bills they don't like after July 31, unless Congress by resolution keeps itself in session after that date.

The objection would be based on a provision of the 1946 Congressional Reorganization Act which says Congress shall adjourn annually not later than July 31 except in time of war or national emergency or unless Congress takes affirmative action to extend the session.

The Democratic leadership of Congress presently has no intention of offering an extension resolution. It takes the position that since the nation still is technically at war and is in a national emergency, the adjournment provision of the 1946 law isn't binding.

As Pegler Sees It

and most expressive of contemporary journalists' is all we said.

A little later a letter comes. "This editorial, which had reference to Pegler's style only, and was written a number of years ago, has been quoted without my permission and without the permission of the Saturday Review where it is copyrighted. It must be immediately withdrawn and the offense not repeated. Yours very truly, Henry Seidel Canby."

All right, if the old goat wants to get tough about it, what does he mean quoting my piece without permission? I am copyrighted, too. Who does he think he is to compliment me? Henry Seidel Canby? And if so, who dares?

I had to do this for the record as a commentary on the honesty and fidelity of literary criticism in the Saturday Review of Literature.

Will you stop by and see me when you're driving through Atlanta or Leavenworth?

Ship Attracts Visitors

New York, July 28 (AP)—New York has taken the Ile de France to its heart again. Reconstructed and redecorated, the 45,000-ton French line queen attracted a host of visitors today. For some undefined reason, the Ile de France always has evoked great sentiment in the Port of New York and among a legion of American travelers. And yesterday was no exception when the liner moved majestically through the harbor at the end of its first postwar voyage.

Tax May Be Cut

Chicago, July 28 (AP)—There is a possibility that Congress will act at this session on proposals to eliminate the 20 per cent excise tax on so-called luxury items, says Vice President Barkley. "I'm not saying this session of Congress will not," Barkley said, "but it is possible."

TRAINMEN BOSS—William Parker Kennedy, above, was elected president of the powerful Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. He succeeded A. F. Whitney, who died suddenly of a heart attack. Kennedy, 57, had been general secretary-treasurer of the union since 1946. He is a native of Huttonville, Ontario.

This is another big reason why we're sure LUCKY STRIKE MEANS FINE TOBACCO!

Tests made by America's largest cigarette research laboratory scientifically help Lucky Strike buyers select the fine tobacco that goes into Luckies!

YOU SEE HERE the largest and most complete laboratory of its kind operated by any cigarette manufacturer in America.

For many years Lucky Strike scientists have delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale. Out of this has grown an elaborate system of quality control. Every step in the making of Luckies—from before the tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the laboratory's watchful eye.

As you read this, a constant stream of tobacco samples from every tobacco-growing area . . . is flowing into the laboratory in Richmond, Virginia. These samples are scientifically analyzed, and reports of their quality go to the men who buy at auction for the makers of Lucky Strike.

Armed with this confidential, scientific information—and their own sound judgment—these men go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco. This fine tobacco—grown together with scientifically controlled manufacturing methods—is your assurance that there is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike!

This man knows where fine tobacco grows. Here is one of Lucky Strike's tobacco-buying supervisors gathering sample leaves from a curing barn. Such samples are obtained from every tobacco-growing area and sent to the laboratory for pre-market analysis. No wonder—L. S./M. F. T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco!

This scientist knows how to test tobacco. In our Tobacco Control Division, samples sent to the laboratory are subjected to scores of analyses to determine smoking quality. This vital testing, both before and after tobacco is purchased, has been conducted for years . . . still another guarantee that Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

Reports received. The laboratory sends results of the analyses to the buying supervisors. This information helps the buyer go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco for Lucky Strike. Thus the judgment of the buyer at tobacco auctions is combined with modern science at the laboratory to assure you that Luckies are a finer, milder cigarette.

So, for your own real deep-down smoking enjoyment

Marcus Says Reds Stole Billions in Industrial Ideas

Washington, July 28 (AP)—American industrial know-how "worth billions of dollars," has been stolen by Soviet spies in the last 25 years, a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee was told today.

The witness was J. Anthony Marcus of New York City, president of the Institute of Foreign Trade. He described the institute as a private organization that advises American exporting and importing firms.

Marcus, who said he came to this country from Russia in 1910, testified that "I have been witnessing the filching of American technological know-how" by Russian agents over the last quarter of a century.

"The center of the Soviet economic spy system in America," he said, "has been and still is the Amtorg Trading Corporation of New York."

Amtorg is the Russian government's trading agency.

This committee is holding hearings on a bill of Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) to make it easier for the government to bar or deport subversive aliens.

Marcus told the committee that the threat of "industrial espionage in America" is taken too lightly, relating this story to back up his point.

He said that last December, about a month after the magazine Plain Talk published an article by Marcus dealing with the subject, he met "my good friend" Lamont duPont in the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York.

Marcus quoted the industrialist as saying about his article: "Why get hot up about it? Let the Russians steal our industrial secrets; they won't know what to do with it anyway."

Marcus said he was "amazed at such a naive remark from the most prominent of the board of the most vital industrial enterprise in war and in peace."

He testified that Russia's economic progress would have been impossible without the technological know-how "they have managed to carry away from here."

Soviet agents, he said, find it "comparatively easy to carry away a blueprint or a shop drawing from a plant, have it micro-filmed or photostated and return it the next morning without detection."

He said the Russians also have obtained American industrial secrets by "buying samples of our equipment, by deceiving our firms."

Memorial

In loving memory of my dear husband, George Brown, who passed away three years ago July 28, 1946.

Silent thoughts, secret tears, precious memories of a dearly beloved husband, whose fondest devotion and kindness will live forever in my heart.

I do not need a special day To bring you to my mind; The day I do not think of you Is very hard to find.

It's sad time heals all sorrows And helps us to forget, But so far, time has only proved How much I miss you yet.

In life I loved him dearly In death I do the same.

Financial and Commercial

New York, July 28 (AP)—The stock market gradually slipped down the price scale today.

For the first hour or so a steady undertone was apparent. Then 1/4 or 1/2 point was chipped from leading issues and prices slowly moved lower. Losses were mostly in minor fractions and a good handful of stocks managed to hang on to small gains.

Only a moderate amount of business was done.

Today was the second session in a row that the market has stalled in a summer rally which started in mid-June and has earned the general price level to a peak since May 19. A good many brokers think the interruption in the rally will be short-lived, but at the same time, there are a number of doubting Thomases in Wall Street on the subject of a prolonged rise.

General Motors excellent earnings report for the June quarter turned out to be a dud so far as the market was concerned. At one time the stock gained 1 1/2 points but later sales were made at a net loss of around 1/4 point.

Also lower were Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Studebaker, Goodyear, Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case, United Aircraft, Commonwealth & Southern, Anaconda Copper, Westinghouse Electric, Southern Railway, Nickel Plate, Atlantic Coast Line, Standard Oil (N.J.), and Pacific Western Oil.

An extra dividend gave Wrigley a lift. Others up were Chrysler, Woolworth, Schenley, Cents de France, American Can, Baltimore & Ohio, Barnsdall Oil, and United Air Lines.

Washington, July 28 (AP)—After months of American prodding, Soviet Russia showed signs of willingness today to do something about its wartime lend-lease obligations to the United States. 48 Polish Farmers Begin New Lives Greenport, N. Y., July 28 (UP)—Forty-eight Polish farmers were getting settled in new quarters here today to work as hired hands for Suffolk county farmers.

Brought to this country under the displaced persons act, they reached here by bus last night, after arriving earlier yesterday by plane at New York International Airport.

The men spent last night at a labor camp of the Eastern Suffolk Cooperative, a farm group. Most of the men are Polish army veterans. They wore black uniforms—former U. S. Army uniforms which had been dyed.

The farm jobs in this area were arranged for them by the Polish Immigration Committee, affiliated with the National Catholic Welfare Conference. Another planeload of 50 farm workers was expected to arrive today. A group of 120 came by ship recently.

The workers will be paid $6 daily for a nine-hour day, minus $2 daily for board and room.

Grand Jury to Hear Tunnel Blast Charges

Newark, N. J., July 28 (UP)—A federal grand jury will hear criminal negligence charges in September in connection with a truck explosion that injured 60 persons and closed the Holland Tunnel for weeks.

U. S. Attorney Alfred E. Modarelli said last night that an investigation of the May 13 blast was nearly complete.

The truck that exploded and set fire to several other vehicles was owned by Boyce Motor Lines of Jersey City, and was driven by Edward Tyndall, 40, of Weehawken, police said.

Modarelli said the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Port of New York Authority had each requested criminal prosecution.

SHOKAN

Shokan, July 28—Callers in the village Sunday afternoon included George Haag and daughter of Islip, L. I. George while in town stopped to see Emanuel E. DuBois, local Republican committeeman and former supervisor of Olive, at whose home in Brown's Station he boarded while employed on reservoir work 40 years ago. The Long Islander inquired after Don Henry, Arthur Wicks and others with whom he was associated in early waterworks days.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lynch and three children have been spending a few days with Donald's mother, Mrs. Denis T. Lynch, at the family summer home near Tice's Ten Eyck Mountain. They are making their home in Baltimore, Md.

The large hydrangea bushes in the adjoining Alfred Tapco and Bernard Bohmer yards along the trail at Shokan are putting on their annual fine showing of blooms.

Mr. Benjamin Swanson and three children have returned to their home in Brooklyn for the time being on account of water shortage at their summer place along the mountainside. The Swanson dug well is the second one to go dry in that section of Shokan.

Up in Roxbury, about 61 relatives and friends fete Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Slauson on the couple's 40th wedding anniversary. All nine children and 34 grandchildren were present at the party, and exchange of remembrances revealed the fact that at the couple's marriage most of the guests came with horse and buggy, the only two automobiles being those of Earl Beardsley and William Hubbell, and the bride and groom rode in a buggy to Fleischmann's on their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kavanaugh of Washington Heights are at the L. F. Ruckert boarding house for a two weeks' vacation sojourn. James, who is manager of a cigar store, was employed at Niagara many years ago, and more recently he and his wife have boarded near Phoenixia. They get The Freeman in the metropolis, and also buy it here as they like this section and are interested in local people and happenings.

Charles Smithoff is erecting an attractive stone block and brick store building on his residence grounds along the Ontario Trail at Glenford. Charles last year completed a large woodworking shop of similar construction at his place of the Ashokan.

George Jackson, K.H.S. senior who was home for the week-end, is getting along well with his studies at the Central Hudson in-dustrial course in Poughkeepsie and is well pleased with life in the Bridge City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haver is mourning the loss of their valuable hunting dog which broke his tie rope one night last week and was struck by a car during the heavy traffic rush to the mountains.

Charles Rodriguez of the Coon's neighborhood is one of the few property holders who are not worrying about the water situation. He has a never-failing spring from which water is piped to the Rodriguez summer home, one time Daniel Simpson furnished.

Another birthday this week is that of Mary Gulnick, a pupil of the Ashokan school, on Saturday, July 30. Mary is a popular little girl in the twin villages, she takes piano lessons, attends the M. E. Church and Sunday school, and last spring won a medal in the Olive Legion Post's essay contest. She resides with her parents, Martin and Olive Gulnick, and her high school brother, George.

The Freeman social page item about Albert J. White, Wurts street young man, winning a two-year scholarship in commercial art was of interest to local readers who recall that Albert resided here before the war and attended the Shokan school for a time.

'Heavy Water'

"Heavy water" is a combination of deuterium and oxygen. All its properties have not yet been determined, but tests have shown that it is poisonous to plants. It is 10 per cent heavier than ordinary water.

MERRY CHRISTMAS—Perspiring church women string Christmas lights on an evergreen tree in preparation for a midsummer Yuletide party at Kendallville, Ind. Methodist Church members thought Christmas is too commercialized in December so decided to hold their own celebration, stressing religious aspects, in July. The tree had to be set up indoors because too many bugs outside waited to join in on the festivities.

Do You Remember

by
SOPHIE MILLER

Do you remember the fatal fire truck accident on May 15, 1937, when the truck tangled with the West Shore gates at 2:25 on a foggy morning and three men were killed, fireman, Dick Smith being the only survivor. The Smith family mourned the loss of their son, who was a member of the Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Here in part is a description of the Firemen's Convention of 1937: "It is safe to say that Kingston never before experienced a day equal to Friday since the place had a name and a history. The only approach to it was Centennial day some years back. Every building and store was handsomely decorated. Every flag pole was created with the stars and stripes, and some instances, houses were fairly covered with small flags and bunting. Along Union Avenue (Broadway) all kinds of stands and shows were in full blaze. Men haranguing crowds to try their hand at all kinds of games. The horse cars went double up every five minutes and even the city was in a standing room. Driving was simply impossible on many streets, all this before the parade. The rain of the previous evening had laid the dust and tempered the extreme heat. Chief Engineer Richard Mooney and his aids kept galloping up and down the avenues on their fine steeds. "Meanwhile, the grandstands on both sides of Union Avenue at the City Hall were being packed with people and the City Hall lawn and O'Reilly Grove opposite, presented nothing but a mass of faces. The street was so full that the street cars could only with difficulty wedge their way along. The fire companies kept arriving meanwhile and marching and counter-marching to get in line, with numerous bands trying out, it gave one a perfect idea of pandemonium, or organized chaos as we say today. The procession was about two miles long, and before its return from Rondout, reaching uptown Kingston, the people in Rondout had not yet seen the last organization pass. Mayor Bray and the Common Council also Mayor of Hudson and other officials were at the City Hall to stand by."

Showing these newspapers to Peter Keresman, who is general chairman of the 1949 parade, he checked off the 1883 year old companies, which are still in existence today. They were: Whitwick Hose, Rescue Hook and Ladder, Rapid Hose No. 1, Union Hose Co. No. 4 and Cornell Hose Co. Besides the many others of that day. Incidentally, in Carl Weber's Pharmacy window, Broadway, downtown there is now displayed an excellent photo of the Cornell Hose Co. firemen lined up as they were some 50 years ago. Among them, is Carl's father, Edward Weber, also there is Frank Quigley, Irvin McCausland and many more handsome men of those days, resplendent in their blue uniforms.

How many folks remember the June 22, 1928 mammoth Hudson Valley Volunteer parade when 104 companies were in line of march comprising some 8,000 men and 60 bands. Also who remembers the F.V.V.F.A. big parade of June 1910?

Barbecue Frankfurters

If you want to barbecue frankfurters slit them lengthwise on one side, but don't cut entirely through the frankfurter. Line them up in a baking dish, pour your barbecue sauce over them, and heat them in a moderate oven.

As the frankfurters heat the sauce will expand and the sauce will permeate the meat. Baste once or twice with the sauce if you like.

Disturb Farmers

Albany, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—
The drought is not the only thing worrying New York state farmers this year.

State Agriculture Department officials point to two other factors that present a "discouraging picture." They are:

1. A prevailing downward trend in prices of farm products. The department's statisticians contend such prices tend to drop faster than those for other products during a general price decline.

2. Costs of farm machinery, grain and farm labor, which have stayed relatively high.

The department said yesterday that the drought had hit hard at pasture lands and hay and feed crops in the northern section, especially between Utica and Watertown. Long Island truck and potato farmers reported serious losses.

The bureau said, however, that there had been "much drier years."

High temperatures also had an effect on pasture lands and some feed crops, the weather bureau reported. Since January 1, the average temperature throughout the state has been five degrees above normal, the bureau said.

There was some encouragement in the Agriculture Department's estimates on crop totals.
The apple, cherry, grape, corn, onion and wheat crops were reported "promising." Feeds, such as hay and oats, were labeled "short, but not serious."

While the Long Island potato crop was "especially hard-hit," the department predicted the upstate crop would be normal, if conditions did not get worse.

BY WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service

I suppose that every beginner at bridge hears the expression,
"There are thousands of people walking the streets of London because they failed to lead trump."
In modern contract, there are millions of people who fail to make a contract simply because they do not count their tricks.

I have taken today's lesson hand from an article written for "The Bridge World" by John C. Stablein, of Seattle, Wash. When the dummy goes down, declarer is confronted with a situation that might seem hopeless. But before we play any cards, let us take a quick count of the tricks we have.

If we find the queen of spades right, we have three spade tricks, five hearts are eight, two diamonds are ten and a club is 11.
Let us count the hand another way. If the clubs are split 4-3 and the trumps 3-2, we can win the opening lead with the ace, ruff out three clubs, making four tricks, and the ace and king of diamonds will be six. The queen-nine-eight of hearts will be nine tricks, the ace and king of spades will be 11 and the jack of spades 12.

As Stabilein points out, win the opening lead with the ace of clubs.
Trump a club with the king of hearts. Play a small heart to dummy's nine-spot. Ruff another club with the ace of hearts. Lead the ten of hearts and overtake it in dummy with the queen. Ruff the last club with the jack of hearts. Lead a spade to dummy's king. Lead dummy's last trump and discard the eight of diamonds.
Play the ace of spades and then a small spade toward the jack, and you have your 12 tricks.

In this hand the four and five no trump bids are the Culbertson convention, not Blackwood.

Pennsylvania Drives To Halt Shipments

Harrisburg, Pa., July 28 (AP)—
Special border patrols were set up today by the State Liquor Control Board to shut off the illegal entry of liquor into Pennsylvania.

The board said it is establishing details at roads and bridges leading into the state to seize unauthorized cargoes of liquor entering the state.

It is hard to determine how much is being brought in but it must be a considerable amount and the board doesn't propose to close its eyes to it, asserted Chairman Frederick T. Golder.

During the last 18 months, board officers have confiscated more than 30 automobiles and trucks carrying contraband liquor.

Now Many Wear
FALSE TEETH
With More Comfort

FASTTEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-acid) powder, holds false teeth more firmly. To use, just sprinkle a little FASTTEETH on your plates. No gummy, sticky, pasty taste or itching. Checks "plate denture" breath. Get FAST-
TEETH at any drug store.

In disclosing the drive, Golder emphasized that it is against the law even to bring in a partly filled bottle from another state.
In addition to losing any contraband liquor not purchased in a state store and not sealed with the official board seal, motorists also can lose the vehicle in which it is carried.

Under the state liquor law, the burden of proving that liquor found in vehicles was lawfully acquired rests on the persons possessing it.

Systems of selective switches make it possible to cut out parts of the heating elements, while the rest are active, to maintain an even temperature in the room.

Blind Craftsman
Credits His Wife
For His Success

Woodstock, July 28—Many have been aware of Joseph Nador's skill as a craftsman since his arrival in Woodstock about two years ago, but did not fully appreciate the scope of his philosophical nature.

Blinded seven years ago through accident, Joseph Nador, who was born in Beirut, Syria, and came to the United States in 1913, carved out a very successful career for himself by designing and making furniture and interior decorating. "I loved wood as a child," said Mr. Nador. "My father was a silk manufacturer and would like to have had me join him in his business but respected my feeling for wood and my desire to be a craftsman."

"The adjustment he had to make following his accident was not an easy one he told us, but he continued, 'I doubt if I could have done it without my wife.'"

Is Keen About Helping

Mrs. Nador until that time had shown no particular skill for the crafts but in a comparatively short period of time has accomplished wonders, and expressed herself as being very keen about the part she plays in assisting her husband in his work of making miniature reproductions of early American pieces. Using cherry, pine, and mahogany, they concentrate on such items as the baby bunting, early American pine, blanket chest, dough tray, hutch table, fan cradle, and Adirondack chair and barrel swinging cradle. Instead of the customary blue prints, it is necessary for Mr.

Nador to make wooden patterns for his various pieces. His skill is so perfect that he knows exactly what he wishes to achieve and lines with pencil the place to be cut. Mrs. Nador does the cutting by means of a jig saw. "She does a beautiful job," interjected the appreciative husband. She also does the painting and finishing and handles all business correspondence.

With the exception of the jig saw, Mr. Nador through his inventive touch system with special markers, uses the several other machines in his large shop located behind The Nook and known as Woodcradle Shop. Included are circle saw, jointer, drill and sander.

Are at Market Fair

Every Saturday morning, the Nadors may be found at their special table in the market fair. Their articles are also sold through Marshall Field, Chicago and George Jensen and Schwartz, New York city, as well as through the New York State Commission for the Blind.

Another outlet will be opened here in the shop adjoining The Nook. It will be known as Woodcradle Mart to distinguish it from the shop. Miss Maude Shelton, whose ceramic jewelry and other articles are displayed at the market fair will also be represented in Woodcradle Mart when it opens on August 1.

Before coming to Woodstock, the Nadors lived in White Plains. After the accident, they decided to make a change. Several places among them Woodstock, were recommended by friends. They came to "look the place over" said Mrs. Nador. "We immediately fell in love with it. It is a picture book village. We decided immediately we wanted to live here and moved as soon as we found a suitable place in which to carry on our work."

When the reporter revealed amazement with regard to Mr. Nador's achievements, this quiet, cheerful, courageous and determined man, remarked, "It seems as though nature always compensates and helps us carry on... there are certain guiding forces."

Marionette Shows
Take Two or Three Months to Plan

Woodstock, July 28—"There is much more to the art of puppeteering than most persons realize," Miss Aileen Cramer said as she spoke enthusiastically about the new marionette show "Toby Tyler" which soon goes into rehearsal for fall presentation in public schools in and around New York.

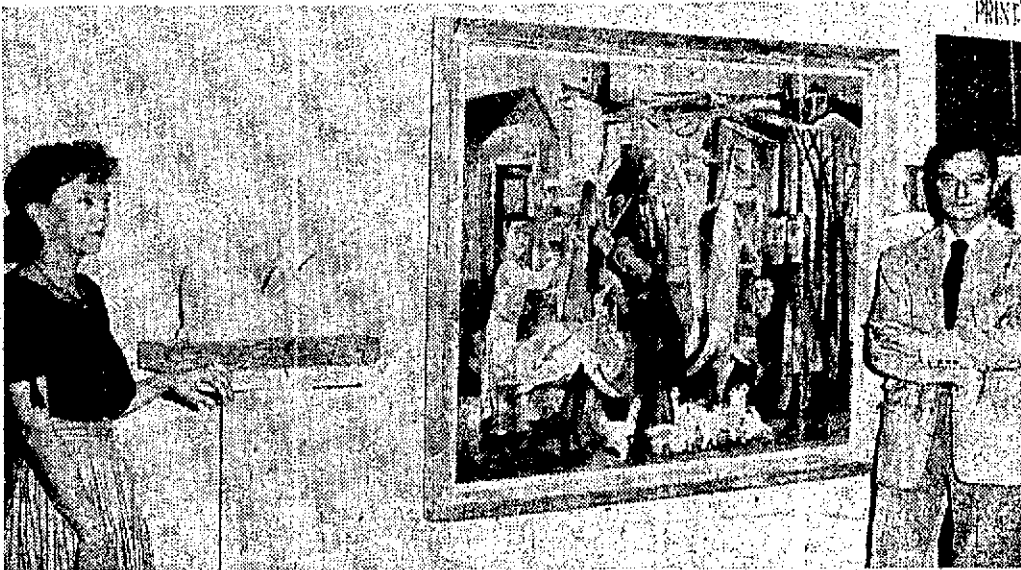

Miss Cramer is a member of the "Berkely Marionettes" owned by Mr. and Mrs. Stefan Lowe of Shady. The Lowes share the responsibility for making the puppets and directing the rehearsals.

Nadors Working as Craftsmen

Woodstock, July 28—Joseph Nador, blind craftsman, being assisted by his wife in their shop where they make replicas of early American pieces. In background are unfinished models.

Leading in Poll for Popular Artists

Woodstock, July 28—Hannah Small with white marble reclining figure and Howard Mandell with painting "Pig Hunt" received the highest number of votes in the sculptor and artist groups respectively for work displayed in the current ballot show at the Woodstock Art Gallery.

Mandell, Small
Ahead on Votes

Woodstock, July 28—Votes cast by members of the Woodstock Artists Association indicated Howard Mandell as the most popular painter and Hannah Small, as the choice sculptor. Their work is currently on exhibition with that of 29 other painters and three sculptors in the Woodstock Art Gallery. This show is known as The Ballot Show.

Mandell had his first one-man show in April of this year at the American Associated Artists Gallery, New York, during which three of his paintings were sold. He has also exhibited at the Whitney Museum, Philadelphia Academy, New York Water Color Show and the American Water Color Society. In 1939 and again in 1948 he received the L. C. Tiffany Fellowship. His work is represented in the A.A.A. Gallery and Rudolph Galleries.

Hannah Small, in private life Mrs. Eugene Ludins, is represented in the permanent collection of the Nebraska Museum and in numerous private collections. Her last one-man show was held in the Passadett Gallery, 1944, has been represented in all national shows and is currently exhibiting in the International show at Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, and the first Middle West Sculpture Show at the University of Iowa. She has been a resident of

Erratic Storm Strikes New York

New York, July 28 (AP)—An erratic storm hit the metropolitan area late yesterday, stalling some subway trains two hours, toppling a big Broadway sign, pounding parts of the city with wind, rain and hail, and leaving other parts dry.

The brief but furious thunderstorm produced flash floods in Queens that sent torrents cascading into the city-owned Independent subway system, and halted trains during evening rush hours.

Thousands of home-bound passengers were stranded. Four persons, caught in the jam on subway platforms, were treated for heat exhaustion. Four others were fined for trying to climb into subway windows when service resumed.

The storm swept across mid-Manhattan, the Bronx, and Queens, but skipped entirely the southern tip of Manhattan. A tree blew over on Riverside Drive and lightning hit a cornice on the roof of a 30-story apartment building at 75th street and Central Park West. Scores of basements in Queens were flooded.

Scattered storms also hit in upstate New York.

Camper Is Killed; Hit by Lightning

Ticonderoga, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—A youthful camper, struck by lightning as he stood in the doorway of an abandoned house, was pronounced dead early today at Moses Ludington Hospital.

The youth, Sanford Rosenberg, 16, of (314 East 178th street) the Bronx, and three companions had run into the house seeking shelter from the storm. The other said Rosenberg was standing in the doorway when the lightning struck.

The four were staying at Camp Sagamore, a young people's camp on the east side of Lake George, about 400 yards from the empty house in the town of Putnam, Washington county.

Ticonderoga firemen tried to revive Rosenberg with an inhalator before he was brought about 10 miles to the hospital.

Youth, 17, Held For Killing Man

New Haven, Conn., July 28 (AP)—Raymond Curtis, 17, was captured today a few hours after police broadcast an alarm for his arrest in connection with the slaying of his estranged wife's step-father.

The step-father, Ernest E. Tennant, 35, a machinist, was shot and killed a few minutes before midnight last night in a hallway outside his second floor apartment.

Detective Captain John L. McSherry said Tennant's step-daughter, Charlotte, named her estranged husband and father of one child, as the killer.

Shortly after being nabbed by the police, Curtis was brought to police headquarters.

Capt. McSherry said the young wife told him this story.

About 11:45 p. m., Curtis called the apartment, seeking her, but she refused to go to the telephone.

A half hour later she heard her husband whistle in the hallway outside the apartment. Her step-father went out, they had words and she heard shots.

Her husband then came into the apartment and pointed a pistol at her, but turned and left without saying anything.

Tennant, who toppled down a stairway leading from the hall, was taken to a hospital where physicians pronounced him dead. He had been shot in the abdomen.

Police said the youthful husband, separated from his wife for about a year, had been living with his mother, Mrs. Rose Curtis in another section of the city.

Police Chiefs Meet At Niagara Falls

Niagara Falls, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—The boob made a slip, but I wouldn't! It is junior's reaction to crime thrillers, says Dr. James Brussel, Willard State Hospital psychiatrist.

Dr. Brussel told the New York State Association of Police Chiefs yesterday that criminals are "glorified" by radio, movie and comic book crime stories.

So-called comic books are "un-comical and often satirical," Dr. Brussel said.

The association, holding its 49th annual convention, is scheduled to meet next year in Rochester.

Ivelyn A. Cummings, Poughkeepsie police commissioner, was welcomed as the organization's first woman member and band leader Guy Lombardo as an associate member.

Raymond Kirk, Sr., has returned from the Methodist Hospital in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Frank Hamilton and the Misses Frances and Mary Van Steenburgh and Helen Gulnick attended a recent play in Woodstock.

The Misses Jerry Murphy and Enis Porini called on Jacquelyn Loomis Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Todd of Massena visited Mrs. Todd's mother, Mrs. Semerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Short and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Short of Albany visited relatives here recently.

F. Traphagen, who formerly operated the movies has resigned his position.

Estate Is Appraised

New York, July 28 (AP)—Mrs. Brenda Perry, wife of Henry P. Perry, stock broker, left gross assets of $139,702 and a net estate of $125,097 when she died November 16, 1948. It was shown in an estate tax appraisal filed yesterday.

Brenda Frazier Kelly of East Norwich, Long Island, Mrs. Perry's daughter, receives jewelry valued at $37,793. In addition, Mrs. Perry left other jewelry to her granddaughter, Brenda Victoria Kelly of the same address, valued at $14,093. In bequeathing the jewelry to her daughter, Mrs. Perry stated she made no further provision for Mrs. Kelly, the wife of John S. Kelly, "as she is already possessed of an ample fortune."

Rules Are Adopted

New York, July 28 (AP)—The C.I.O. Transport Workers Union has adopted new rules aimed at preventing unauthorized strikes against privately-owned transit companies in New York city. The rules adopted yesterday by the executive board of the T.W.U.'s Local 100 provide for severe penalties for union officers who provoke a work stoppage in violation of an arbitration agreement. At the same time, John E. McCarthy, president of the New York City Omnibus Corp. and the Fifth Avenue Coach Company, offered assurances of "our willingness to cooperate."

THE RUMINATOR

A Column of Contrary Opinion
By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

The year 1949 has been especially interesting to the writer of these contrary opinions.

It is always informative to watch developments from a viewpoint which is opposite to general comments and opinions.

It begins to look as if the contrary opinions expressed over the past six months concerning the stock market and the so-called "recession" in business activity are going to prove out. Obviously, the theory of "going contrary" is of any value they should prove out.

From the standpoint of "timing" the recession, we have noted that the "first or second quarter of 1950" has been the most commonly predicted end of the recession. On the basis of considering the effect of this general opinion on business activity it would appear that the recession might come to a halt much earlier—perhaps this month or next. It should be added that this contrary calculation does not imply that the recovery to follow will be sustained, or prolonged. About all we can expect from the contrary theory is to "cross" the majority opinion ONE STEP AT A TIME. The extent of any recovery which may follow the current set-back has to be considered AFTER such a recovery sets in. In other words, if the recession should come to a halt shortly, there is nothing in the contrary theory to assert it will be more than a "fall recovery." The future will depend upon the momentum of the recovery and (to express a personal opinion) upon the enveloping crisis in Europe.

There is another contrary thought which should be emphasized here. In "everybody's" opinion DEFLATION has succeeded inflation. Yet, recent changed policies of the monetary authorities (The Federal Reserve Board) and of the Administration argue strongly that inflation could readily "catch" again. The monetary base is fully as inflationary as it was a year and two years ago. The apparent strategy of the Administration is to combat any tendency toward depression with inflation. We discussed at the time the new open-market policies of the Federal Reserve, since which time bond prices have reflected this "reflation" program. As pointed out then, stock prices are likely to follow any important recovery in the bond market. Stock prices have quickly followed, as we have seen.

Let us constantly keep in mind that "money" is the basis of important economic changes.

Turning to the stock market, the bears were in high glee six weeks ago, when the market fell through, by a slight margin, the three-year-old "low" point. Bearish utterances echoed through Wall Street and many a Main street: "We told you so; the market is sick and prices will sink much lower."

Before the bears' echoes died away the market contrarily turned around and marched back up the hill to recover more than its losses of the quickie June slump.

During the six weeks' recovery bearishness has apparently increased. There are numerous doubting Thomases who have looked upon the rise as merely a "rally," soon to be followed by a renewed decline. Last week's report of the "short interest" tends to confirm this assumption. The short interest is the largest in sixteen years, or since January, 1933. (The significance of a large short interest lies in the fact that those who sell stocks "short" are compelled to buy at some future time in order to "cover" their short sales. Short sellers do not have to cover at any given time, but the "pressure" to buy becomes psychologically stronger as prices rise. Accordingly, a large short interest may cause a sharp jump in prices IF and WHEN short sellers become restless and fearful of a sustained upward trend).

Contrary to much comment today that the market has rallied abnormally and a set-back is overdue, mention should be made that on numerous occasions the stock market has advanced for several weeks without an important reaction. In 1947, for example, the market rose for 10 weeks without interruption. In the spring of 1948 prices advanced for nine weeks.

On these, and other previous occasions of persistent short-term advances, "opinions" and comments have a familiar ring. If you will forgive me for patting my own back, the reference to the Ruminator in LIFE Magazine of March 21 are timely. Here is what the author of the article ("The Strange State of the Market") had to say: "... In May, 1947, when businessmen were searing one another with talk of recession and stocks kept going down Ruminator Neill wrote, 'Inasmuch as this winter never recalls a time when both professional forecasters and the public have been right when they were bearish, this would appear to be another instance where it would be unwise to join mass opinion.' A few days after

Neill wrote this, the market which had looked so hopeless to everybody, began a 23-point rise. The situation has been similar of late. One has been able to find in almost any financial and business magazine, and among advisory services—over the past many weeks—numerous lengthy "doubting" articles. The gist of them might be summed up this way: "The market cannot possibly recover when business activity is headed down hill, and with earnings and dividends sure to reflect a drop in profits."

Yet, after a brief two weeks' sinking spell in the market has confounded general opinion and has recovered sharply. Whether it will drop back for another toe-hold before a fresh upward push is anybody's guess. But, with bearishness still general it is a logical contrary expectancy that the stock market has not completed its summer rise. Moreover, as mentioned, if the short interest should become frightened ("crowded," as they say in Wall Street) there could be fireworks for a brief time.

Republican Urges Support of Pope In Morals Case

Washington, July 28 (AP)—Rep. St. George (R-N.Y.) said yesterday "every thinking American" should rally behind the call of Pope Pius XII to halt the spread of immorality among youth.

The Pope made his plea to an audience of women at Rome on July 24. Mrs. St. George told the House:

"His Holiness, particularly stressed the need for the restoration of the home on a moral basis, and he decried influences in our public life which are contributing to what he termed the growing sensuality of youth."

"I think," she said, "that every Catholic priest, Protestant minister and Jewish rabbi could perform no greater service than to join the Pope in a movement to reestablish our moral structure."

Mrs. St. George, asserting that political materialism is the prime force in the destruction of morals, said:

"I believe every thinking American should rally to the Pope's call. The moral decay has infected our youth because it first infected the parents of those youths.

"Until a moral resurgence sweeps the face of the globe, the fate of our children and our children's children is going to be a bitter one."

"Until we again realize that a sound moral structure is the backbone of civilization, and our greatest security, the world is going to undergo unprecedented suffering."

Dewey Asks Aid For Chinese Rulers

Hamilton, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—Governor Dewey called today for immediate U. S. aid to Nationalist China to "save and preserve one fifth of the world's people" from communism.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the first annual conference on American foreign policy at Colgate University, the 1948 Republican presidential candidate declared:

"China is worse off for being our friend than if she had been our enemy."

"There can be neither excuse nor reason for timidity and muddleheadedness on the part of our government in attempting a solution. Surely we must have a policy and the will to carry it out, and surely our present habit of no-policy-at-all must go."

It was the New York governor's first public statement on the Chinese situation since November, 1947, and it contained some of the strongest criticism he has leveled at the administration's foreign policy since the presidential campaign last fall.

"By dint of tremendous effort, and at great cost, we have achieved a stalemate with the Soviets in the cold war in Europe," he said.

"But while we have won these tenuous victories in Europe, the whole cause we represent has suffered the most far-reaching and resounding defeats in China and throughout much of Asia."

"While perhaps saving Europe's 270 million people, we have up to now lost even more in China and face the risk of losing all of Asia."

"It is my firm conviction," he continued, "that with a small fraction of what a new war would cost, we could provide the skills and resources which we might reasonably hope could still save China—could save and preserve one-fifth of the world's people on the side of human freedom."

State Liberalizes Rules Regarding Machines on Roads

Albany, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—Farm leaders today had won a round in their fight for relaxation of rules restricting the highway movement of heavy farm machinery.

Under a liberalized plan, announced by Governor Dewey, the state will:

1. Waive the $2.36 monthly permit fee for movement of vehicles wider than eight feet where the owner carries insurance protecting the state from claims arising from issuance of the permit. The fee has been used to pay the premiums on a blanket policy protecting the state.

2. Extend the term of permits for movement of such equipment from one month to a maximum of four.
3. Allow movement of heavy machinery in the period between one-half hour before sunrise and 8 a. m. on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

4. In areas where there is little traffic, permit movement of heavy farm equipment during the same daylight hours on Saturdays as on other week days.

Previously, oversized vehicles were banned from the highways at night and on Saturday, Sunday and holidays. Permits were granted only on a monthly basis.

Farm leaders protested that "red tape and inconvenience" in obtaining permits were hampering farm production.

The new rules were agreed upon Tuesday at a conference of farm representatives and state officials.

Dewey said that a special committee would continue to study the problem and would prepare recommendations for revision of the law. Bertram D. Tallamy, public works superintendent, is chairman.

neth L. Wilson, Leon Barzin, Walter VanWagonen, Montecore DeWitt, Warren Huttly and Howard France.

Walter S. VanWagonen, director at the center said that on the average of between 30 and 35 boys and girls now use the facilities daily. There are swings, slides, saws, sand box and other equipment, as well as a good baseball diamond. The center is for the use without any charge of all the children in the township and the committee in charge is hopeful that more of the young people between the ages of five and 21 will make use of the center. Children under five years of age are permitted to use the equipment provided they are accompanied by an adult.

The committee is already planning for improvements next season. Most important in this category perhaps is the wading pool for small children.

Tickets for the benefit performance may be purchased from any member on the committees as well as the Woodstock Colonial Pharmacy, Fred Mower's store and the Town House. The girls committee has set up a table in front of the post office where tickets may be purchased, as well as at the Playhouse box office.

Route 28A Is Being Resurfaced

The south Ashokan boulevard, Route 28A, is being top-dressed from the main dam to Boiceville by the city of New York which maintains that section of roadway.

Last spring the route was in very bad condition due to the heavy traffic which had been diverted over it during the construction period when Route 28 was rebuilt from West Hurley to Boiceville. A request was made at that time to have the route resurfaced and placed in better condition. Since then holes have been patched and now the resurfacing operation is going forward in the vicinity of West Shokan.

Supervisor Claude Bell of Olive, who has the interests of his townspeople at heart, joined in the request last spring for reconstruction of the road and now, along with those who use the highway, are grateful to the city of New York for the good job being done.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE L. WILLIAMS (Kinkead and Hulton Photo)

Williams-Reilly Marriage Performed

Miss Catherine Frances Reilly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew E. Reilly, 37 Stuyvesant street, was married Sunday, July 17, at 2 p. m. to George L. Williams, 251 East Strand, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Williams. The double ring ceremony was performed at the rectory of St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Edward P. Farrelly.

The bride wore a pink frosted organza dress with blue accessories and corsage of white gladioli. Her sister, Miss Mary K. Reilly, as maid of honor wore a blue frosted organza dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Ray Williams was his brother's best man. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 75 guests. The couple left for a wedding trip to New York city and upper New York state. She wore a yellow dress with white accessories and corsage of white gladioli. They will live at 37 Stuyvesant street for the present.

Mrs. Williams is a graduate of Kingston High School. Her husband served in the army during the war and is employed by Feeney's Boat Yard.

The wedding will take place in the Dutch Reformed Church, Poughkeepsie, where the Rev. George B. Kinkead, a friend of the bride-elect's parents, will officiate. The reception will be held at Eder Hill, the home of Miss Van Kleeck's great-grandmother, the late Mrs. James W. Hinkley, now the home of her great aunts, the Misses Hinkley.

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post
(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

LOOKING FOR A JOB

A young woman looking for a job asks: "(1) When I go to an office for an interview, shall I offer to shake hands with a man or a woman? (2) Do I have to remain standing if it doesn't dawn on someone to ask me to sit down? (3) Also, does a young woman executive receiving a visitor get up to shake hands with both a man and woman?"

(1) You should not put out your hand unless the executive offers hers (or his). (2) Yes. (3) For one bringing a message or seeking a job an executive would not get up to shake hands but she or he would invite someone with specific business to be seated. Not of course a person who comes in on routine business, who will sit or stand according to the probable length of the business.

A Big Mistake

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiancé is of the belief that a girl's family, if they have money at all, are supposed to furnish the newlyweds' house or apartment. I think this idea comes from the fact that his own family did this for his two sisters. I'm sure he is mistaken or if he isn't, then certainly a lot of parents have erred. But will you put something in writing?

Answer: I am certain that all parents, hers and his both, would like to be able to do this. Unfortunately, those of either hers or his who can do it are very few. According to etiquette, it is the bridegroom or his family who is supposed to provide the house and furnish it. Her family furnish nothing but the house linen and the bride's trousseau. Actually, it is a question of who is able to do what, and for the newlyweds to get along on whatever they have.

Man on Bus or Train

Dear Mrs. Post: Is a man expected ever to get up on a train or bus and give his seat to a strange woman?

Answer: Only if the woman standing near him is carrying a child or possibly if she is very elderly and looks feeble.

Mrs. Post's leaflet, E-6, "What to Wear at Wedding Receptions," includes description of clothes for afternoon and evening weddings. To obtain a copy, send 5 cents and a stamped self-addressed envelope to her c/o Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail.

Ballerina Toppers Wrap Fall Finery

Ballerina coats make big fashion news. Bright plaid taffeta jacket (right) bounces a poplum as flip as a dancer's skirt. Flame red suede velvet spreads its charms in the cape coat (left), quilt-stitched at hemline and at flared cuffs of sleeves.

New York (NEA) — Sautiest little coat of the new season is the ballerina topper.

Swinging into autumn with unrestrained fullness this coat of Monte Sano's design is cut as short as a dancer's skirt. It makes up in width what it lacks in length and in front what it lacks in the more solid virtues of a winter wrap.

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Fashion Editor

Brilliantly colored plaid taffeta—red, green and yellow—lends its crisp charms to one long-waisted jacket which sports a poplum as part as a ballerina's skirt. This ruffly bounce can be flipped out, tilted up or down or crushed into folds. It owes its antics to a pliable stiffness that is woven into taffeta.

Another ballerina topper which spread across shoulders like butterfly wings is a flame-colored cape of suede velvet. This cape-coat has the fullness of a dancer's skirt and is quilt stitched in deep bands to strengthen its slip appeal; and again to enforce the flair of full, trumpet-shaped sleeves.

Soprano Is Guest Artist With Quartet

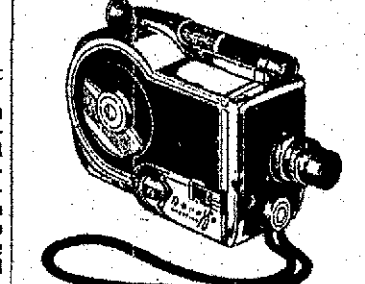

Miss Mildred Meditz, young lyric soprano of New York city, was the guest artist with the Woodstock String Quartet Wednesday night in an almost entirely Brahms program. The concert was the fifth in a series of summer chamber music programs at St. James Methodist Church Hall. The Quartet introduced to many in the audience a String Quartet in E Minor by Giuseppe Verdi. There were approximately 100 attending.

Miss Meditz showed a great deal of promise in her chosen field with an attractive personality as well as musicianship, breath control and ability to carry through her entire range with an excellent continuity of tone placement.

For her first group she sang four Brahms songs and later as an encore to her second group of songs by Ravel, Debussy and Mascagni, she sang Brahms light-hearted Vergeblisches Ständchen. For her aria she sang Voi Lo Sa Pete from Cavalleria Rusticana by Mascagni.

Ernest Drucker, first violinist in the quartet, played the Brahms Sonata for Piano and Violin in A Major, Opus 100, and once again thrilled his audience with beautiful playing. Isaac Sass was pianist and for her solo number did Brahms Rhapsodie in G Minor by Brahms. The Verdi String Quartet quite surprised everyone in the audience. This composition is reported as the only chamber music work of this great composer who is so well known for his operas. The piece proved to be one of great technical difficulties for all of the players but these were completely surmounted by this quartet's musicians.

Next week will be the final concert of the summer series when the Community Choir under the direction of C. Franklin Pierce will sing and Robert Williamson, noted clarinetist and author of books concerning this instrument, will be the guest artist.

The concerts are held at St. James Church Hall Wednesday evenings beginning at 8:30 p. m. Friday nights the program is given in Woodstock and Tuesday nights at New Paltz.

SHOKAN

Shokan, July 28—Mrs. Felix Zeff of New York is spending some time at her place along the south side of the Tull, formerly the Everett Kinney residence. Homer Markle, Jr., has been decorating the interior of the Zeff house. Other jobs contracted by Homer recently include the Jacob Knecht house at Ashokan and the home of Postmaster Ernest Beesmer in Olive Bridge.

Richard Eubling of New Jersey, a regular summer visitor to Shokan, is at the Longyear House for a vacation. "Dick" is living a retired life following many years of service with the Crucible Steel Company whose plant was removed from Jersey City to Harrison, N. J., following their disastrous fire of three years ago.

Most of the gardens in Ashokan are looking thrifty and productive despite the drought handicap. Folks in the lower village appear to have one-up on the Shokaners in the matter of gardens, judging from what can be seen along the main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore J. Carlson have returned to North Bergen, N. J., after having spent a week with Mrs. Carlson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gebel.

Having a Birthday: John Irving Mitchell of Roxbury celebrated his birthday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Tyler. Those attending Johnny's party included his four grandparents and eight great-grandparents. Now there's something for a fellow to splot about when he waxes old and reminiscent. . . . Up in Bloomville, Mrs. Richard Kenyon was tendered a surprise (?) birthday party by her daughters, Margaret and Linda, aged 7 and 6 years, who arranged the affair complete with invitations and flowers. A nice gesture upon the part of the little girls; they too will have something pleasant to remember in the years to come.

Clarke Pfister, Schoenectady man who is vacationing at his place here, plans to raise the old barn on the property and utilize the sound lumber for building a wing and garage on the house.

Horace Oaks of North Manor avenue was a caller here Wednesday afternoon. Horace, a Kingston resident for 35 years and formerly operator of a Broadway filling station, covers several counties in the interests of the Legion Auxiliary's program for supplying free hospital beds, wheel chairs and so forth, for home patients.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Friedman, New York couple who occupied a bungalow on VanSteenburgh road last summer, have purchased the site for a new home in Ardsley.

Catholic church services are being held each Sunday in the renovated one time farm home of the late John and Mansfield McKelvey at Boiceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Manny Sonericks reportedly have about 140 city children and 23 assistants at their High Point summer camp in the Brodhead sector of Olive. They have an abundance of water over there, the 300-foot well which was driven some time ago, recently was fitted up with a new pump by James H. Stoutenburgh of Glenford, to make available the vein of water which flows at the rate of 75 gallons a minute.

Callers here Wednesday included Roy Ransom, High Falls resident and Freeman field representative, who had been up to the town of Shandona in the course of a trip to publicize the coming of the Freedom Train to Kingston on August 16. He is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. DeForest Bishop, prominent residents of Tongore for many years previous to water-works days.

Frank Carle, who with his wife, and son, Torrence, became residents of Shokan this year, has employment on the large building which is being erected in Kingston for the use of the telephone company.

Fred Peck of Margaretville was a caller here Tuesday. Fred had been spending a brief vacation in Kingston and was returning to his duties at a resort in the Delaware county village.

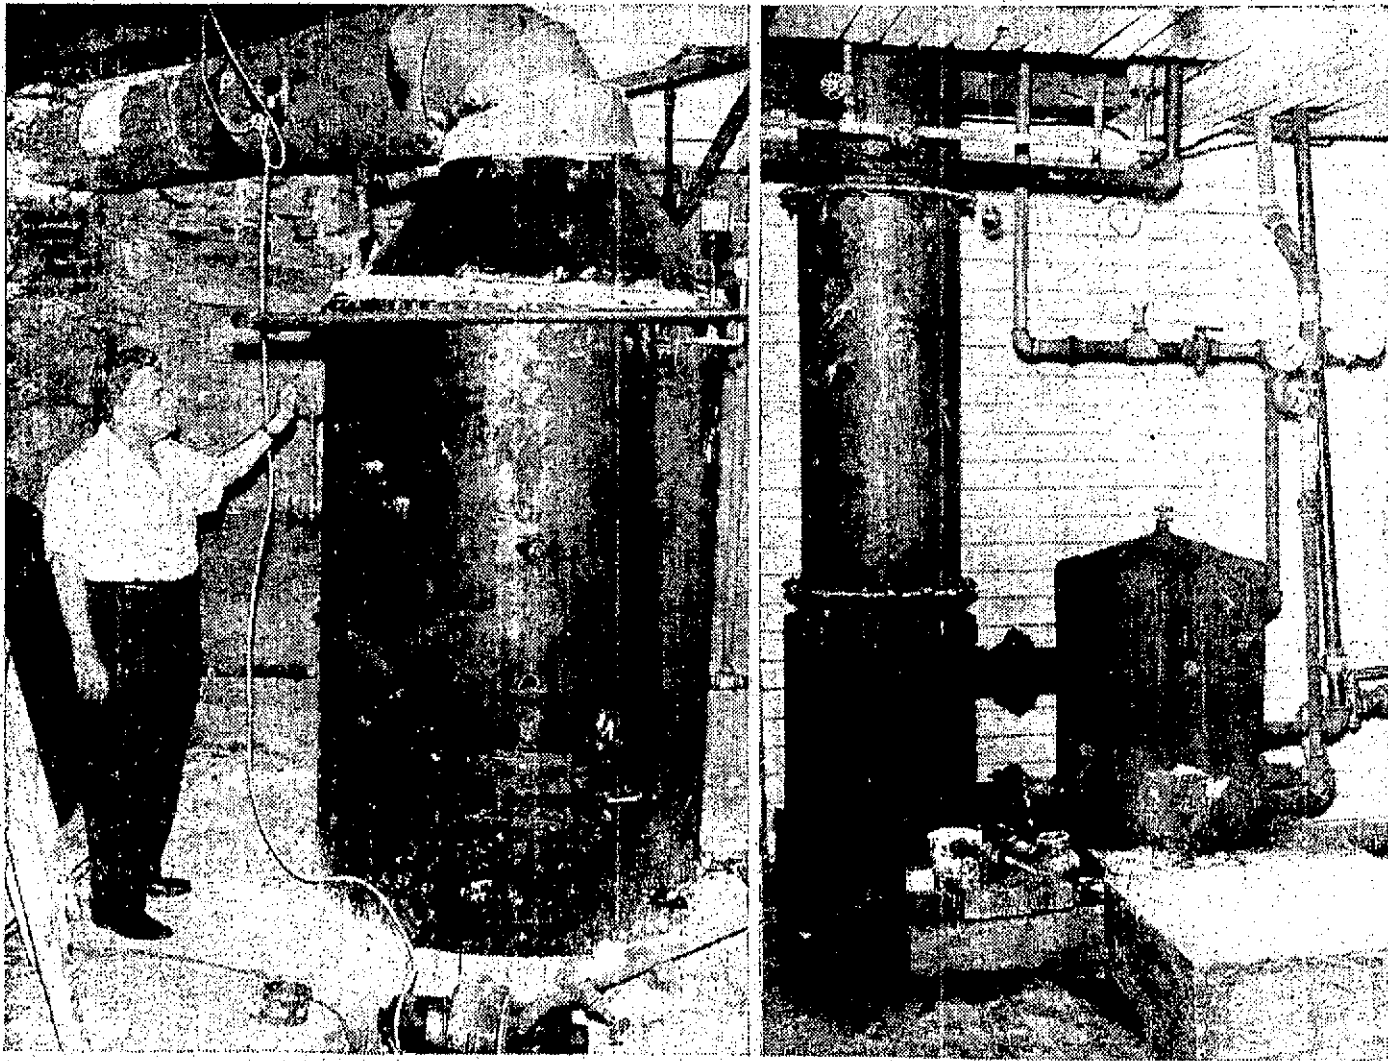

Emily Hansen was conveyed by a Conner's ambulance to a hospital Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hansen, who lived alone in the village center, is reported to have been found on the floor of her home by a caller and is thought to have suffered a stroke some time during the day. She had a stroke about a year ago and was a hospital patient for some time. On Tuesday evening she was preparing to leave the following morning by bus for New York to enter the Roosevelt Hospital for examination. Mrs. Hansen and her late husband conducted the Whitestone Inn at Samsonville for a number of years.

Picnic Supper

Use the backyard for a picnic supper for the family sometimes. For the main course mix up a bowl of shrimp salad using lots of celery, hard-cooked eggs, green or black chopped olives, mayonnaise or creamy salad dressing; serve another bowl of watercress and carrot strips with it. Accompany the salad with hard rolls—but split them and spread them with parsley butter before bringing them out. Dessert might be an eight-inch square of chocolate cake; frost it right in the pan and serve it from the pan, too. Have plenty of milk for the children and of course iced tea or coffee for the grownups.

Steel can be made strong enough to withstand a pull of 500,000 pounds per square inch.

Cohen Henchman Dies

Los Angeles, July 28 (AP)—Edward (Noddie) Herbert, henchman of gambler Mickey Cohen, died early today of shotgun wounds suffered July 20 at the hands of rival gangsters. Herbert had been in critical condition since the shooting. The slugs blasted his liver, spleen and kidneys. Cohen, a former movie bit actor and a state-appointed bodyguard for the gambling boss also were hit but are recovering. Herbert had escaped 11 shots from gangsters only a month before as he was entering his apartment. The county grand jury, meanwhile, is expected to return indictments today following its explosive inquiry into police vice-payoffs.

show rooms on Maiden Lane and delivery of new cars will be made from that place. Washing and servicing of new cars, except for mechanical adjustments, will also be made at the newly acquired place.

Service and repair work will be conducted from the Buick service garage at 10 Main street, the Maiden Lane property being used exclusively for new and used car sales. The limited display facilities at the Main street garage tended to congest the service department and the leasing of the Maiden Lane property will permit better new car display and also provide better service to present Buick owners, Mr. Gross stated.

The Maiden Lane property was erected some years ago by the late Roy M. Sullivan as a sales and service station for Packard cars. Later when he took over the Chevrolet agency the service department was moved from Maiden Lane to O'Neil street and the Maiden Lane property devoted exclusively to sales.

Girl, 18, Is Freed Of Murdering Her 53-Year Paramour

Waukegan, Ill., July 28 (AP)—Joyce Schumaker, an 18-year-old pale, blonde girl, was released from the Lake county jail last night, freed by a jury of murdering her 53-year-old paramour.

There was an outburst of cheers from the courtroom crowd as the clerk read the circuit court jury's verdict, which was reached after about 40 minutes deliberation. Many Bobby Soxers, former schoolmates of Joyce, were among the courtroom crowd of 200.

"I was really worried until I heard the verdict," Joyce said as she embraced her mother. "I feel wonderful. It is a wonderful surprise. I have never stopped praying in four months."

Spectators crowded around Joyce to shake her hand as her mother kissed her daughter's hair before newspaper photographers snapped her picture. Joyce, 17 pounds lighter after her four months in jail awaiting trial for the slaying of Carl Reeder, 53-year-old school clerk, said she was uncertain about her future. She said she may become a missionary or, perhaps, a professional softball player.

Her mother, Mrs. Edna Schumaker, said the family will leave Waukegan so her daughter can start life anew and finish high school. She quit attending Waukegan High School, where she met Reeder, last September and worked in a towel laundry.

The state had not asked for the death penalty or life imprisonment, asking only that Joyce be punished. Circuit Judge William H. Carroll gave the jury four possible verdicts—death, life imprisonment, imprisonment for a term recommended by the jury, and acquittal.

Defense Attorney Sidney H. Block, in his closing statement to the jury, termed Reeder a "moral degenerate, a big brute, a pure moral leper," he said Joyce was an "emotional happy-go-lucky kid of 16 before Reeder entered her life."

Joyce was on the witness stand for 2½ hours yesterday. She contended that the shot which killed Reeder as they sat in his car on the Lake-Michigan beach last April 4 was fired accidentally as they grappled for the gun. She admitted she had her finger on the trigger. She described in detail her version of the shooting, events leading up to it, and her 17 months of association with the married school clerk.

She testified she had sexual relations with Reeder during her early courtship with him, before she learned he was married. She said Reeder pursued her despite her repeated demands that they end their affair.

Alliance Is Ratified

Lisbon, Portugal, July 28 (AP)—The North Atlantic Alliance was ratified by the Portuguese National Assembly yesterday. The vote was 80 to 3, with the opposing votes cast by members who wanted Spain included.

IN HER OWN DEFENSE

160 Men Arrested, $40,000 Is Seized In Gambling Raid

Maple Shade, N. J., July 28 (AP)—One hundred and sixty men were arrested and $40,000 confiscated here today in a state police raid on an armed gambling joint.

Despite an armored lookout station in which police said they found a revolver and pistol, the 18 raiders captured every occupant of the one-story concrete-block building without firing a shot.

Listed officially as a plumbing warehouse, officers found the interior to contain "several rows" of dice, several cartons of playing cards, scratch sheets, blackboards listing every major race track in the country, a ticker tape system with an underground wire, and slot machines.

Police said most of the players came from Philadelphia and Camden—only 10 miles away—and there was evidence that a limousine service had been bringing many of them here.

They also said they expected to connect the local gamblers with a New York ring.

Many officers who took part in today's raid were "fresh from the recent raids in Newark," which broke up a policy ring operating between the New York metropolitan area and Ohio, police said.

However they added that there was no connection between the men arrested here and those taken in the Newark raid.

Sgt. Clinton A. Vance, state police public relations officer, said at 7 a. m. that the players "are now being arraigned" before two trial magistrates here and being fined $20 each.

He said the process would take a few hours with two school buses being employed to load the prisoners back and forth between the court rooms and the scene of the raid.

The $20 fines were being handed out to the players only, police reported, with heavier sentences to be sought for the persons believed to be running the establishment.

No names of arrested persons were released.

Ten probably was the first artificially concocted human drink. It dates back more than 4700 years in China.

No Wedding Ring

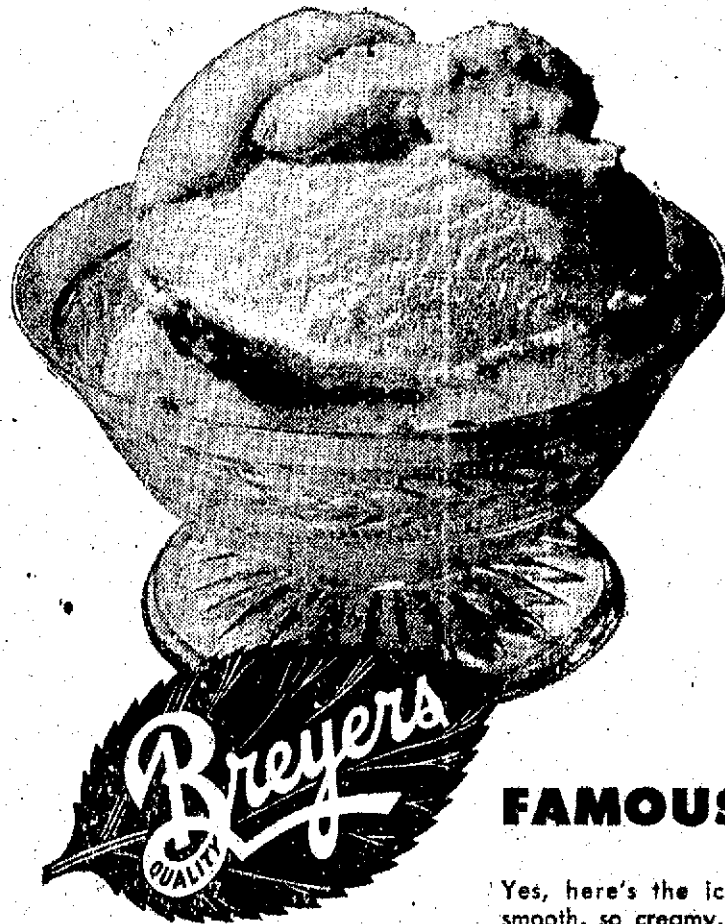

Chicago, July 28 (AP)—Vice President Barkley says he wasn't shopping for a wedding ring when he spoke at the National Association of Credit Jewelers convention last night. The 71-year-old widower, after his address, told reporters: "Don't ask me about any woman in St. Louis. I'm not here to buy a wedding ring, as one of you suggested." Barkley stopped at St. Louis last Sunday and paid a social visit to Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley, a St. Louis widow he met recently in Washington.

Reds Get New Areas

Canton, China, July 28 (AP)—Red troops seized new areas of Hunan province today. Nationalists conceded the Communists were astride the Canton-Hankow railroad between Changsha and Hengyang. An official dispatch acknowledged loss of Chuchow, 25 miles south of Changsha, capital of Hunan and a central China strongpoint. In taking the rail town, the Reds not only severed Nationalist communications between Changsha and Hengyang but gained control of the entire Chekiang railroad.

Colonials Whitewashed, 9-0; V.F.W. Night at Stadium Tonight

Poughkeepsie Chiefs To Furnish Opposition

It's the Veterans of Foreign Wars special night at the municipal stadium tonight when the Kingston Colonials will encounter the Poughkeepsie Chiefs. Game time is 8:30 o'clock.

Tonight's special contest is the first of two such programs scheduled this week. Saturday night it will be Firemen's Night at the up-town ball orchard in connection with the annual Ulster County Firemen's convention meeting this week-end in Kingston. Waterbury will be in for that game.

The Waterbury Timers hung a 9 to 0 pasting on the local nine Wednesday night at the Nutmeg state diamond. A big seven-run rally in the sixth inning made it a walkaway. Before that uprising, the Timers held a slim 2-0 edge.

Sostre Mashed
After Johnny Stefank's first inning homer with a man on gave the Timers a 2-0 lead, Ernie Sawyer went on to headoff the Colonials with a four-hitter in the abbreviated first game of the regularly scheduled doubleheader. The nightcap was washed out.

Francisco Sostre, who was ejected for that homer by Stefank in the opening round, settled down and held the Timers in check until the fatal sixth when the roof fell in.

Before the first out was hung up in the sixth the Timers had prodded across seven runs on six hits. Sostre gave way to Jim Gordon who finished up without giving up any more runs, although he issued three walks.

Ratty Fails
Six hits, two of them doubles, three walks and a throwing error by Jose Abreu turned the game into a rout in that sixth frame. Abreu uncorked a wild heave over Sostre's head at first with the bases loaded and before Johnny Elenchin could retrieve the ball in right two unearned runs pranced across the plate. Kingston's only real threat came in the fourth after one batter had been retired. Johnny Elenchin, who picked up two of the four singles off the offerings of Sawyer, singled but Ralph Matzer skied out. Allen Thomas kept the rally alive with a single sending Elenchin to third. After Sawyer worked Sawyer for a free ticket, Mario Perez ended the threat by going after a bad pitch and was thrown out at first.

Sawyer, ace hurler for the Timers, added his own cause with a pair of hits, one a double. He also knocked in a run. Every Waterbury player scored at least one run and collected at least one hit off the slants of Sostre and Gordon.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP

By The Associated Press

By JACK HAND (Associated Press Sports Writer)
Maybe Connie Mack was right when he said his Philadelphia A's still had a chance in the American League race.

They laughed at the kindly old gent when he spoke with optimism in St. Louis as his A's floundered close to the second division. They had lost 12 of their last 14 on a sorry road trip.

When he let Carl Scheib pitch the entire nine innings at Chicago last week, absorbing an 18-hit, 12-0 drubbing, many figured Mr. Mack was conceding.

Then the A's turned. A doubleheader sweep over the White Sox Sunday and now three straight over the wobbly St. Louis Browns, and they have a shiny new five-game winning streak. Furthermore, they are only 7½ back of the leading New York Yankees and only a half game behind the sizzling Boston Red Sox.

To cap this turn-about-face, Scheib went the route again last night, despite a five-run first inning assault by the Browns.

Survivors Homers
Scheib survived and settled down. Roy Sievers and Dick Kokos hit homers in that first inning and Bob Dillinger smashed a triple. After that, Scheib allowed only two more hits.

Philadelphia won the opener of the twilight-night doubleheader for Lou Brissie, 7-3, with a four-run spurt in the fourth when Eddie Joost cleared the bases with a double.

Mel Parnell, the solid man of Boston's suddenly potent pitching staff, held the Chicago White Sox to three hits in a 6-0 victory. It was his 14th win and his 17th complete game in 21 starts.

The Sox, tuning up for their important five-game week-end series with Cleveland, rapped Randy Gumpert and Matt Surkont for 11 hits including Bobby Doerr's 12th homer. Don DiMaggio boosted his consecutive game hitting streak to 22 with a double and single.

Nats End Skins
Washington finally broke its 11-game losing string by edging Detroit, 7-6, in the first of a two-night doubleheader. But the Tigers smoothed the Senators' 11-0, on Freddie Hutchinson's four-hit pitching to break even.

Rain postponed the second game of the New York-Cleveland series with the score tied 4-4 at the end of four innings. The Yankees blasted Bobby Feller from the box before anybody was out in a four-run first inning, but the Tribe fought back to get even.

The St. Louis Cards continued to run wild in the National League, preserving their 1½ game margin over Brooklyn by smashing the Phillies, 7-3. It was their seventh straight win, a string interrupted by Monday's tie at Brooklyn.

Hank Borowy's wildness was his downfall. He walked five men in the first two innings and all scored. Brooklyn ended its longest losing streak at four games by routing the Chicago Cubs, 7-3. Starting pitcher Don Newcombe failed to last the route. Manager Burt Shotton brought in Erv Palica to retire the side in the ninth.

Westrum Homers
The New York Giants saved fifth place by trimming Pittsburgh, 8-3, on the flashy relief pitching of Kirby Higbe, the ex-Pirate. Wes Westrum's three-run homer in the seventh was the big blow of the game.

Mary Rickett bashed a homer with a man on in the 13th inning for Boston's 9-7 win over Cincinnati. Bob Elliott accounted for four earlier runs with two homers before he was banished by Umpire Frank Dascoli.

Simple, If You Know How:

A swarthy, pleasant faced Texan proved to us convincingly this week that golf is primarily a one-handed game—the left hand. The average week-end golfer or duffer has all kind of trouble with both hands. Ergo the slice, the hook, the scuff, the duff.

Jimmy Nichols of Fort Worth, Texas, plays strictly one-handed because he has only one arm, his left arm. Back in 1929 Jimmy Nichols was prospering in Fort Worth, had two good arms, money in the bank, and a peaceful life. Then one day the automobile he was driving collided with a railroad engine.

Six months later he left the hospital minus his right arm. Then came the depression and the bitter dregs of total business failure. By chance a friend employed by one of the Fort Worth worthy newspapers dragged him out to a golf course one day. The 24-year-old Nichols never had played the game. As he sat on a bench by the first tee he picked up a club near at hand. Out of curiosity to see what might happen, Nichols tried to hit a ball down the course.

The Switch to the Left Hand:
No one—including Nichols—knew just what happened but he began to practice the game. He had been right handed before his accident, and his first attempts were rather pitiful. In his first practice, he scored 212 for nine holes.

Jimmy had been using a left handed club with a forehand stroke. His progress—what there was of it—was slow. So he switched to a right handed club and a backhand stroke, driving the ball as a right-handed golfer with two good arms would have done. He found that it worked better, and his scores shot downwards. Soon he was breaking 100, then 80 and then in the 70s when he became a national golf figure.

We watched Nichols boom 240-yard drives down the middle against Alex Gerlach, Charlie De Stefano and Tommy McNamara at College Hill in Poughkeepsie. He was either driving with them or ahead of them. Nichols had a 74, Gerlach, the "Twoallskill" smoothie, 71, De Stefano, home pro, 71 and McNamara 72.

Believe me, duffers, this is a one-handed game, this golf. Strictly left handed.

A Champion Without Eyes:
Another distinguished golfer visited Kingston last week. You won't find his name among the Sneads, Hogans, Sarazens and Nelsons, but in his own realm he is a fascinating performer. He is Clinton Russell of Duluth, Minn., four-time national blind golf champion.

When you consider their handicap, the scores turned in by the top blind golfers are phenomenal. Trained caddies are their eyes, the caddy calls the shots, the clubs, the layout of the land, wind direction, distance. The blind golfer does the rest and what a terrific job!

Ex-champion Russell spent a day with his wife's cousins—the Merlikes of 83 Henry street and the Don Merlikes of Ten Brook avenue. They were en route home from Norristown, Pa. where Russell, who has been totally blind for 26 years—played in the National Blind Golf tournament.

A keen golf enthusiast in his youth, Russell kept right on playing after he lost his sight in an accident. He finished fourth in this year's tournament.

After his appearance on the Bob Ripley program several years ago and the publicity following a match between him and Dr. W. J. Osenhan—a blind English golfer—at Duluth, other blind people became interested and wrote to him for advice about taking up the game of golf.

This year there were 18 entries at Norristown, three of them veterans of World War 2. Charlie Boswell, who was blinded in the Battle of the Bulge, was the winner and Gill Gilman, who lost his sight in the Ruhr, was second.

His greatest source of pleasure, Russell said, was the feeling that largely through his influence other blind people have found a new interest in life.

Well, duffers, how about that fat 96 you shot last week-end, with two good eyes and two good arms!

COLONIAL
ROUNDUP

(By The Associated Press)

With first place in the Colonial League at stake, the Bridgeport Bees called on their ace hurler, Phil Frick, last night, and he came through with his 15th win in 19 attempts, downing the second place Bristol Owls 5 to 2.

The fighting Owls tied the score in the sixth inning, but Bridgeport produced a three-run rally in the eighth, sparked by Eddie Yeager's bases-loaded single off big Guy Coleman.

The league's New York state representatives suffered another bad night when the Waterbury Tigers shut out the Kingston Colonials 9 to 0 and the Stamford Pioneers downed the Poughkeepsie Chiefs 11 to 7.

Ernie Sawyer limited Kingston to four hits in the seven-inning contest that was supposed to be the first game of a doubleheader. The second was rained out.

Frank Piccarelli limited Poughkeepsie to two hits during the first six innings, but the Chiefs got to him for nine safeties thereafter and he had to have help from Emil Moscovitz to get the last man out in the ninth.

Home run by Scotty Koproksi and Pete Gentile, along with Danny Pavone's two triples, gave the Pioneers enough runs in the early innings to offset Poughkeepsie's late rally.

About a thousand watched the Bridgeport contest, but elsewhere the crowds were meagre, an estimated 300 at Waterbury and a paid attendance of 175 at Stamford.

Chapman Lone Hope In Canadian Golf

Saint John, N. B., July 28 (AP)—America's hopes in the Canadian Amateur Golf Championships rested with Dick Chapman as play entered the quarter-finals today.

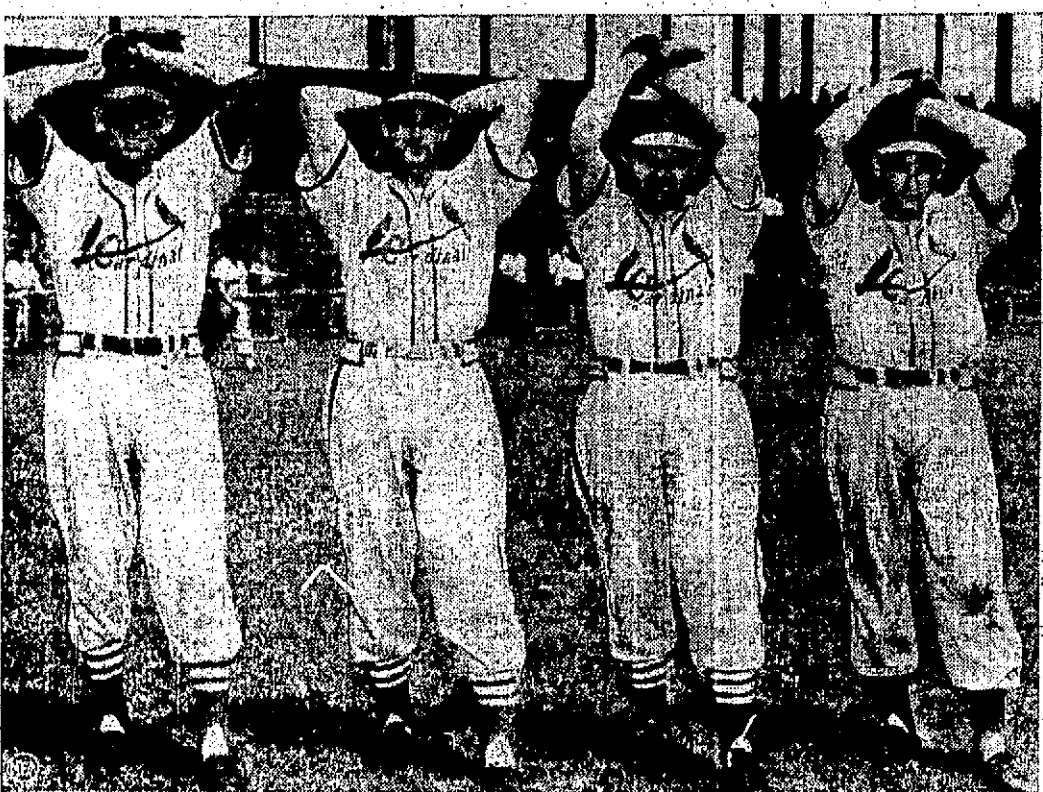

The Pinehurst, N. C. veteran became the only U. S. survivor after elimination yesterday of defending champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, Tommy Riddell, Quebec amateur king, ended the muscular American's two-year reign, one up in 19 holes.

Chapman, 1940 American amateur champion and 1947 runner-up for the British amateur title, had little trouble getting past the two 18-hole rounds yesterday. He first defeated Doug Bajus, Vancouver, 4 and 2, then took his afternoon match from Vern Mohs, Edmonton, Alta., 5 and 4.

HANDY ANDY STEALS SECOND ON LOW THROW

Chicago Cubs' third baseman Andy Pafko (48) slides safely into second as low throw gets away from Brooklyn Dodgers' second baseman Jackie Robinson. Umpire Bill Stewart makes a fancy decision while side-stopping the ball in sixth inning action at Chicago's Wrigley Field. Dodgers won game, 7-3. (AP Wirephoto)

P. Brown went the distance for the winners and was opposed by Ed Lowe.

The defensive feature of the game came in the last of the second with one out. "Champ" Holstein tripled but when Ed Lowe cranked a vicious liner back through the box, Brown flogged down the ball and threw to third for a fast double play.

J. Mills led Fullers with a pair of hits, one going for a homer, M. Berardi, and "Champ" Holstein collected two apiece for the losers. Fullers 002 001 0-3 Schulers 101 000 0-2

P. Brown and Titus; Lowe and McClure.

Rose's Market, scoring six runs in the fourth, overpowered Barclays Wednesday night at St. Mary's lot to the tune of 9 to 3. The winners unloaded 12 safeties off the offerings of Al Cross, G. Hooker hurled for the Market-men.

E. Rowland paced the winners with three for three. Willie Cohen, shortstop for Rose's, clouted his third homer of the year in the fifth.

Collegiate Heads
Assure Cooperation
For 'Sanity Code'

New Castle, N. H., July 28 (AP)—

Assurance of more cooperation in enforcing the N.C.A.A.'s "sanity code" was given today by the National Association of Collegiate Commissioners.

But the intercollegiate athletic heads took no drastic action about these regulations which govern the eligibility of members of all sports in more than 160 of the nation's colleges.

"We had an exchange of ideas," Clarence P. Houston of Tufts College, chairman of the N.C.A.A. Compliance Committee, explained after yesterday's session of the commissioners' 11th annual meeting here.

"The commissioners assured me they were eager to play a proper role in enforcing the 'sanity code' at the colleges they represent, but no specific cases were discussed,"

Houston said. Houston told the commissioners earlier that several colleges will be notified of non-compliance with the "sanity code" when the N.C.A.A. Compliance Committee meets in Chicago on August 12.

In declining to name the colleges, he said that whatever action is taken by our committee must, under our regulations, be withheld until the N.C.A.A. meeting next January.

The name America originally was applied only to South American, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

'Big Four' Expected To Advance Today In Meadow Tourney

Southampton, N. Y., July 28 (AP)—Richard Gonzales, Billy Talbert, Gardner Mulloy and Herbert Flam are expected to gain the semi-final round today in the Meadow Club's Invitation tennis tournament.

That quartet represents the tournament's "Big Four"—seeded as named—and the brand of play being flashed by Gonzales indicates that the young Los Angeles power-slinger does not intend to give up his crown here or in the national championships at Forest Hills.

"Pancho" looked sharp yesterday in breezing past his third round match with former Davis Cupper Frank Shields of New York, 6-2, 6-0. He now looks better in competition than at any time since he won the U. S. title last fall.

In today's quarter-finals, Gonzales opposes Irvin Dorfman of New York, who yesterday upset fifth-seeded Arthur Larsen of San Francisco, 6-1, 3-6, 6-4.

Talbert, the nation's No. 4 player from New York, had to make a sudden trip home yesterday and his match with Grant Golden of Chicago was moved up to today. Billy, if he does the expected and defeats Golden, then takes on Arnold Saul of Los Angeles in the quarter-finals. Saul yesterday eliminated Cincinnati's Tony Trabert, 6-4, 6-4.

Flam, of Beverly Hills, Calif., plays Richard Savitt of Orange, N. J., today, while Miami's Mulloy meets Charles Masterson of Hicksville, N. Y.

After a close first set, Flam prevailed over Richard Gaines of Edgarton, Mass., 7-5, 6-1. Mulloy lost a set to Clark Taylor of New Haven, Conn., but advanced by 6-2, 1-6, 6-0.

Savitt defeated Felicissimo Ampon, tiny Philippines player, 3-6, 6-4, 6-1. Masterson won over August Garzenmuller of Sea Cliff, N. Y., 6-4, 6-2.

The semi-finals, if they follow form, would find Gonzales tackling Mulloy and Talbert opposing Flam.

Barbers to Close

All barber shops in the city will close at 3 p. m. Saturday due to the firemen's parade scheduled in conjunction with the annual Ulster County Firemen's convention which will meet here this weekend. The decision to close the shops was reached at a meeting Wednesday night.

SHOW STOPPER—Broadway musical star Netta Fabray stopped the show during an outdoor production in Dallas, Tex. Dewey Is Invited
Washington, July 28 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York has been invited to testify next week at congressional hearings on arms aid for Europe. This was disclosed today by members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which is holding the hearings. They said the two-time Republican presidential candidate has not yet replied to the invitation.

Gelatin Dessert
Never use fresh pineapple in a gelatin dessert, since the enzymes in the fresh fruit will prevent the dessert from setting. Canned pineapple, however, may be used in gelatin desserts with safety. If you want to use the fresh fruit, be sure to boil it first.

NOTICE
This is the time of the year that motors get hot for only one reason, cooling system not being proper. Tony DeCicco's Garage can correct this.
